Roger:

In response to your email of a short while ago, I'm forwarding to you a list from payroll that shows most of the relevant information. It's from December, but still accurate, with the exception of the reference to Mark Olinger, who is no longer with the City (Steve Cover has assumed the Olinger vehicle). (Also, Aaron Olver, as the interim manager of the Economic Development Division, replacing Tim Cooley, takes a vehicle home. Cover pays $48.14 monthly; Olver pays $40 monthly).

I should note that this list does not include vehicles that might go home with emergency responders (Police, Fire) and "on-call" employees.

If you need more, please let me know.

Dan
